One of the happiest voices at Tenney High belongs to an unseen member of our class. He is exceptionally spirited and is seen at every T.H.S. football game! In the not-so-far future we may hear his verbal acclamations coming to us from our radios! Raymond Feugill is a great kid who truly exemplifies the Spirit of '69!

The Seniors

The Rangers are in there fighting!

Spirits were high as the big day drew near. Coach Kissell gave a pep talk which really put us in the mood.

— How We Trounced the Scarlet Knights —

The day was clear and everything was set. The "Red Ace" showed who was boss from the opening kick off by picking up a fumble and scrambling in for six. Not satisfied yet, the Rangers picked a play and within four minutes, "Ace" carried over another.

Vinny took off in a cloud of dust, but because all good things must come to an end, he bit the dust about five yards up.

After a long day we all like to relax with a drink.

After ten years of waiting and hoping, the MIGHTY RANGERS finally tasted the sweetness of revenge through VICTORY over North Andover!

Queen Irene Wunderlich and Attendants
Jackie Roy, and Lucy Coco.

The 1968 season has created many memories for seniors Bob and Jim. With pride they will recall their victories over North Andover and Tewksbury, and they will forever cherish the lasting friendships they have made.

A locker room now empty and still recalls the activity it held during football season —the cheerful clamor of victory—the somber silence of defeat.

With much nostalgia "Ace" leaves the club house for the last time and looks forward to his future with confidence and zeal.

Remember—

Bruised skins ... noisey bus rides ... drippy veal cutlets from Bea's ... the piercing whistle ... downing oranges in one bite ... satisfaction after victory ... Klukie and her pranks ... gasping for air ... sexy sweat pants ..."We're from Methuen" ... checking out the opponents ... cheering for the J.V.'s ... —wins—losses ... the wildest season ever ... pep talks ... long, dark silences ... gently placing beat-up hockey sticks back in a closet to rest ... and the end of it all!

Our Seniors

Girls' Basketball . . .

Dribbling, practice, laughter, "lambs," and foul shots were all a familiar part of the girls' basketball season at Tenney.

Co-captains Pat Paine and Kathy Nelson, along with Coaches Bailey and Shruender, always tried their best to keep our girls in line, but the power and enthusiasm of the squad was often uncontrollable. "Be agressive!" but be the most fabulous team ever—and they certainly were!

The Girls Who Cheered . . .

With their psychedelic plaid cool-lot outfits and swishy, swaying poms, the T.H.S. cheerleaders marched onto the field to make each Saturday football game a spirited smash. When seasons swapped—so did their attire. Crisp jumpers provided the elbow room needed to perform geometric routines on a basketball court.

The girls' year-round aim was to cheer with the crowd and to the team, thereby transferring the spirit from public to player where it could do the most good. The squad, consisting of eight seniors and five juniors, was led by co-captains Marsha Apkarian and Nancy Nicholson. Together, the thirteen girls lived through gymnasiums, silent bus trips, and tense situations, loving every minute of it; after all, that was the whole idea!

"Hurrah" to the Tenney High Cheerleaders '68-'69.

The Girls Who Twirled . . .

Our Rangerettes of Tenney High, led by Captain Carol Adamson, added up to a talented unit of skill and energy. Whether they were marching in a parade, performing at a rally, or just practicing a new drill, the girls put forth their "all."

How can the group ever forget inspection, "left, left," freezing football games, "Step to the Rear," and those delicious morning snacks in our sweet-smelling locker room? For Carol Adamson, Franny Tulley, and Debbie Turchi, the three senior members of the squad, it won't be easy!

Our Seniors

Winter Track

Although they had to clear the track when it snowed and wear warmer socks when it was cold, this year's winter track team proved that they were tough enough to win in any weather.

THE 12th DAY

Art Club

OFFICERS: l to r—seated Frances Tulley, Secretary; Patricia Paine, Treasurer; standing, Eileen Mulcahy, Vice-President; Donald Sestini, President.

The Senior Art Club, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Melia, is one of the most active clubs at Tenney. The members are in charge of posters for school dances and games, and decorations for the cafeteria at Christmas. They also decorate for school dances, the Sophomore reception, the Senior Play and, the real test of their talent, the Senior Class Prom.

Business Club

The Business Club, under the direction of Miss Lange and Mrs. Rimas, meets once a month to increase their knowledge of the business world. Their activities include field trips, movies, and visits to the senior citizens and exceptional children. The main objective of the club is to help others in the community as well as themselves.

OFFICERS: l-r—Miss Lange, advisor; Ann Collizi, Treasurer; Debbie Forgione, Secretary; Lucy Coco, Vice-President; Andrea Allston, President; Mrs. Rimas, advisor.

Student Council

The purposes of the Student Council are to act as a coordinating agency between the student body, the school faculty, and the administration; to promote good citizenship, to encourage student participation in all school activities, to assist the school administration whenever possible, and to execute all duties faithfully to make students more familiar with school life and to improve school spirit. Mrs. A. McLennan is the advisor.

Honor Society

The National Honor Society members are selected for their scholarship, character, leadership, service and citizenship. This group offers a tutoring service, holds an annual Book Fair in addition to the daily Book Mobile, plans occasional assemblies and promotes other beneficial projects.

Blue and White Staff

The 1969 editorial staff under the supervision of advisor Mr. Steve Francis and editor-in-chief Debbie Apkarian have planned and constructed an exciting issue of the Blue and White each month of the school year.

The staff have really kept secretary Denny Donahue busy with all the paperwork. Paul Weinstein never fails to show up with his Polaroid when an earth-shattering event occurs. Business manager Cindy Johnston makes sure the staff doesn't overdraw its account, and both Glenna Noble and Beverly Naylor add an artistic touch to every issue.

100-199 PHILOSOPHY

First page editor Gail Schwartz and her reporters have done a fine job presenting headline articles pertaining to the latest social and cultural events of the school.

Editorials and feature articles are handled by Ann Zaccari. She and her second page workers keep an open line for students to express their views.

Andrea Allston, third page editor, leads her staff in gathering all the latest gossip floating around the halls of Tenney.

Sport page editors are Steve Bajor and Marsha Apkarian. Assisted by their reporters, they give complete coverage of all sport and athletic events at M.H.S.

JUNIORS

The French Club is one of the most active organizations in the school. Meetings are more than business meetings; they are reunions where students may listen to speakers, watch slides of French paintings and French civilization, and participate in group discussions. French club members may be found participating in school assemblies or setting up cultural exhibits for National Education Week. Each year, the group makes plans to see a movie and usually takes a trip to Boston.

SOPHOMORES

Latin Club

Because there is only one Latin class, Latin club members are allowed to hold their meetings during class time. They sponsor such events as the Latin Club Christmas Party and plan other interesting activities. One of the most enjoyable aspects of membership in the Latin Club is the annual trip to Phillips Academy to attend a Latin play.

Spanish Club

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Derby, the Spanish Club is open to all students of the Spanish language. Meetings are held after school, and parties and other such activities are planned. An extremely interesting activity is the members' trip to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston.

Underground Music Society

Advised by Mr. David Whiting, the Underground Music Society is an enjoyable and relaxing club. The members swap albums of current fame, attend shows of popular music groups, and alternate providing homes and stereos.

The beat goes on and on at the meetings of the Folk Music Club. Entertainment is provided by the guitar-playing members. Field trips are often taken to see popular folk singers in the Boston area. Musically inclined students find this a most rewarding club.

OFFICERS: l-r—Mrs. Lane, Advisor; Joanne DiPaolo, President; Susan Krikorian, Treasurer; Louise Liberfarb, Secretary; not present Mary Alice Groves, Vice-President.

Folk Music Club

It may not be common knowledge that there are in our midst many promising young mathematicians dedicated to the proposition that all math-meets are not created equal, and that the Math Club shall not have tried in vain to win one. They take increased devotion to that cause for which their leader, Mr. Robert Fradette, has been giving many measures of devotion— that the Math Club will have a new birth of winning streaks and the theorems of the Admiral, by the Admiral, for the Admiral shall not perish from the blackboard.

One fine day, after receiving an invigorating dissertation on the second law of thermodynamics, Mr. Russell's second period Physics class decided to form the cum laude of Tenney High School—The Physics Club. Its president, Bob Gallagher, has gallantly led the class, unscathed and in a blaze of red glory, through the rigors of Mr. Russell's tests. The Physics Club has yet to prove itself the eighth wonder of the world.

Long live the lab coat!

Speakers' Bureau

The Speakers' Bureau, under the leadership of Mrs. W. Hovanasian, is a newly formed club of talented orators. Its primary objective is to improve the line of communication between the adults and teen-agers of Methuen. The members enter speech contests and accept offers to speak at local clubs and organizations.

German Club

The German Club, under the able leadership of its officers—President Stephen Bajor, Vice-President M. Kendall Bean, Secretary Ronald Najarian, and Treasurer Ralph Tatone, had a very successful year and was fortunate enough to attend several activities.

In February, "Don Carlos," a German film shown at Phillips Academy, was well attended by club members, as was "Das Glas Wasser" in May. An outstanding activity was the attending of a German play written and produced by Phillips Academy students.

All German students at Tenney are members of this club. The experiences enjoyed through this club's activities have proven interesting, informative, and beneficial to all students involved.

Glee Club

If you pass the band room during third period, you may hear the melodious strains of the Tenney High Glee Club. They made their debut by Christmas caroling at the Lawrence Common. They have since had little chance to perform, but they are willing, ready, and able. Be listening for them.

Elaine Johnson, Ann Marie Fiorilla, Pam Manzi, Mrs. Kfoury.

Italian Club

Any students of Italian may belong to the Italian Club, although they have a French president. The group meets every other Thursday in room 109 under the supervision of Miss Faro, and sponsors house parties, takes trips to Italian restaurants in Boston, and helps to set up exhibits in the language lab.

OFFICERS: Vice-President, Paul Weinstein; President, Jeff Monte; Secretary, Harold Chadwick; Mr. Gregory, Advisor.

Our Band

Marching proudly into a football rally, or sitting in the spirit-soaked security of the bleachers, one may stop and wonder what that inspiring sound coming from up front is. It is the pep-music of the Tenney High Band. Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Gregory, assisted by Mr. "Frank" Savory and Mr. "Nat" Roof, it gave our football team endless "go," both on the field and in the bleachers. At the major assemblies it worked hard to entertain us with melodies befitting the occasion. Their annual concert was one of the best yet.

Our Editor—Sharon

What is a yearbook? What is the torch? For the senior students at Tenney, it's a diary with every page filled—filled with sweet memories of three years past. It contains the combined literary and pictorial summary of each student's actions and reactions to the high school environment.

What is a yearbook staff, or better still—who fills each golden page with remembrances that radiate the true spirit of Tenney? Our group of editors have worked diligently and enthusiastically to present their class with the finest graduation gift anywhere. They made certain it contained all the happenings of our three years—sprinkled with experience, mixed with knowledge, spiced with emotion, and topped off with time itself!

Thanks and congratulations to the Yearbook Staff of 1969.

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

The Grand March

Sophomore Reception 1968-69

Each year the senior class sponsors a reception to welcome the incoming sophomores. A sophomore king and queen are chosen by the senior class. This year the honors went to Barbara Ingalls and Donald Pendergast.

The faculty welcomes the sophomores!

Cadet Assembly

The Cadet Assembly was held in October to announce the new officers and the Queen and her attendants. The officers chosen were: Steve Dyer, Adj. Major; Jeff Grenda, Drill Major; Ken Hyde, Lt. Colonel; and Edward Crosbie, Colonel. The Cadets chose Patricia Pizzano as their Queen and Nancy Nicholson and Paula Findiesen as her attendants. The Corps' formal activities will be held in March when the Queen and her attendants will preside.
